

Hot Target: A Novel (Troubleshooters series, Book 8)

[Read by Patrick Lawlor and Melanie Ewbank] No one succeeds more brilliantly at blending peril and passion than New York Times bestselling author Suzanne Brockmann, who knows exactly what makes hearts race and pulses pound. Like most men of action, Navy SEAL chief Cosmo Richter never learned how to take a vacation. So when he finds himself facing a months leave, he offers his services to Troubleshooters Incorporated. Founded by a former SEAL, the private-sector security firm is a major player in the ongoing war against terrorism and known for carrying out covert missions too volatile for official US military action. But Richters first case is anything but covert. Maverick movie producer Jane Mercedes Chadwick hasnt quite completed her newest film, but shes already courting controversy. The World War II epic frankly portrays the homosexuality of a real-life hero - and the storm of advance media buzz surrounding it has drawn the fury of extremists. But despite a relentless campaign of angry emails, phone calls, and smear tactics, Chadwick wont abandon the project. Then the death threats come. While the FBI appears on the scene, nervous Hollywood associates call in Troubleshooters, and now Chadwick has an army of bodyguards, whether she likes it or not - and she definitely doesnt. Her stubbornness doesnt make FBI agent Jules Cassidys job any easier. The fiercely independent filmmaker presents yet another emotional obstacle Cassidy doesnt need - hes already in the middle of a personal tug-of-war with his ex-lover, and fighting a growing attraction to Chadwicks brother. Determined to succeed - and survive - on her own terms, Chadwick will face off with enemies and allies alike. But she doesnt count on the bond shell form with the quiet, capable Cosmo Richter. Yet even as their feelings bring them closer, the noose of deadly terror all around them draws tighter. And when all hell erupts, desire and desperate choices will collide on a killing ground that may trap them both in the crossfire.
