

Danger in Paradise

Twenty three years ago, security expert Luke Romanovs childhood playmate disappeared without a trace, leaving behind grieving parents and an identical twin sister. Hes never stopped blaming himself. When he finds himself working side by side with a woman identical to his friend, hell stop at nothing to discover her true identity, even if it means betraying her. What few memories photographer Hope Jennings has of her past arent pretty. The monsters from her nightmares make it impossible to completely erase her violent history, but shes living her life one day at a time. When a wealthy family hires her for a month down in the Caribbean, she expects to work hard, get the job done, and go home. While there, she finds unexpected passion in the arms of the sexy and dangerous Luke. Unfortunately for her heart, he presents a danger to the safe life shes built for herself. When someone targets her to die, she doesnt know who to trust.
