Its early winter 1860 and love is starting to warm up in the beautiful meadow near Mission Valley Montana. This historical and inspirational Western romance much-loved series is about empowered women who turn around their hopeless circumstances in this mid-19th-century tale of the old West, with strong faith and discover authentic men and true love. Meet the educated, proper, east coast girl Snowe Abigail Boudreau, her Ma died giving birth to her, her loving kind father never returned from a recent tragic Portland Maine fishing expedition. She has little options, out of money, living with her best friend who is wonderfully in love and going to be married. She chooses to accept a marriage proposal from an animal trapper and trader in remote Montana. She has no idea what he looks like or what she's getting herself into! Did Snowe just make a fatal mistake by becoming a mail order bride for a trapper? Will Jason get accustomed to having someone to live with as he is used to living alone? Will her faith pull her through what she promised to do if she lives? Come and hang out at this remote River town with Jason, a strong, self-made man, and Snowe, who is stepping into a rustic life, she never imagined and her best, wonderful, loving friend Bethany whom she will never forget. And a piano!.... "a story of hope, fear, romance, suspense and true love.".... While this book is part of a romance series, it can definitely be read as a standalone book.
