Garth (Coming Soon) Nolan finally had a practice of his own, and soon his brother Burke would be leaving the hospital and joining him. Now, if the rest of the family would mind their own business, Nolan would be much happier or not. He was sulking over his dilemma when his nurse told him he had a patient, a hurt kid who wasn't doing much talking. Rylee nearly collapsed with worry when she found out her nephew had been hurt. She wasn't sure if she was cut out to be a parent. She loved her nephew, Shane, dearly and had taken on his care when her sister died, but how she missed the warning signs was beyond her. He was being bullied at school daily and she knew nothing about it until he'd been cut with a knife. I didn't know. Her entire body sagged at her confession. He said he had it handled. And I thought he did. It's my fault he's beaten up like this. I should have. I'm not any good at this parenting thing. Nolan reached for her just as Shane moved on the bed. He wasn't sure what the kid could do, banged up the way that he was, but as soon as Nolan touched her, he knew what she was to him. Her body, warm and strong, leaned into his even as he buried his nose into her neck. Christ, his body screamed at him, she was his. Licking her throat, tasting her, he could hear her moan, but when his head was jerked up by his hair, all he could do was stare at her.
