

What is truth? Sequestered is the true account of the Dan Kutz murder trial, which took place in Madison, Wisconsin, in 2001. The story is told from the perspective of a juror sequestered over a three-week period. Brian Solomon educates readers on both the intricate details of this high-profile trial and the jury process itself. Solomon weaves complex layers of fact, innuendo, guilt, and expectations as he progresses toward his inexorable role as the sole hold-out in deliberations... and his search for truth.
