

His Salacious Spell

Claire is a pure, untouched girl living in a repressed household, trapped in a small town. When the man who aims to be her suitor enlists the help of a sorcerer, Razmus, in order to inflame her passions. Magic does what it will, however, and the yearning left behind is not the man who wants to own her but the wizard himself! Claire is unable to fight her new desire for the mysterious outsider, but does he return her feelings at all? This short story is 6,229 words long and contains material intended for adults. -Excerpt- Claire shocked him, next, her free hand suddenly rising to lay flat against his chest, against the black cloth of his shirt. She seemed downright gleeful to hear of that. Im glad. Im so glad. I wanted to talk to you. My thoughts havent been... How do I put it? Confusing, out of order, but if anyone could make sense of it, you could. She leaned in, close enough that he could smell her, a hint of rose soap or shampoo wafting from her hair. Her eyes half closed, almost a feline look of satisfaction displaying across her face. I feel so much better now.
