

1000 Buddhas (The Book) (German Edition)

Alle lebendigen Wesen sind Buddhas und verfügen über Weisheit und Tugend. (Buddha) Buddha zählt zu den am häufigsten dargestellten Heiligenfiguren der gesamten Welt, vielleicht ist er sogar häufiger als der in der westlichen Kunst so wichtige Christus abgebildet worden. Buddha wird in ganz Asien und weit darüber hinaus verehrt. Sein Bild nahm an der Seidenstraße, dem Geburtsort vieler Varianten des Buddhismus, Gestalt an. Die buddhistische Religion erkennt viele verschiedene Buddhas an, die wiederum unterschiedliche Traditionen verkörpern: so z. B. den Buddhismus der Lehre der Ordens-Älteren (Theravada), des Großen Fahrzeugs (Mahayana) und den Tantrischen Buddhismus (Vajrayana). Der in allen Traditionen verehrte Buddha ist in jeder Kunstform dargestellt worden: in der Bildhauerei, häufig in monumentalen Skulpturen wie etwa den heute zerstorten Buddhas von Bamyán, in der Malerei und vor allem in unzähligen Höhlenmalereien wie etwa jenen im indischen Ajanta oder in den Dunhuang-Höhlen in China. Das vorliegende Werk ist sowohl für den leidenschaftlichen Liebhaber asiatischer Kunst als auch für Neulinge auf diesem Feld ideal geeignet. Es lädt ein, Buddha, seine Geschichte, seine Lehren, aber auch seine unzähligen Gesichter durch insgesamt tausend Abbildungen, großartige Kunstwerke aus den größten Museen der Welt, zu entdecken oder wiederzuentdecken.
