

Return to Shanhasson (Blood and Shadows Book 3)

Shannari dalDainari has won the Rose Crown. She has her beloved Khul at her side. Yet shadows crowd closer than ever. Political machinations and assassination attempts have crippled her ability to protect the land and the people. When her children are endangered, she has no choice but to send them to safety. Away from her. Surrounded by grief, danger, and turmoil on all sides, the last thing she needs is another enemy threatening to destroy all she holds dear. Yet a Black Dragon stirs in the deserts of Keldar. He haunts her dreams, while a Keldari army amasses on her border. When he soars over the Shining Walls of Shanhasson, will she put a knife in his heart or will Shadow devour her at last with dragon jaws? Love is the greatest gift of all, and sometimes requires the greatest sacrifice. However, love shines in the darkest night. The road is long and hard, but when Shannari reaches her destination, she'll reunite with all her loved ones she's lost over the years and find more love and happiness than she's ever known. Warning: Explicit sex, violence, torture, menage a trois, nine virgin warriors, dragons, desert savages, flaming oil, cursed rings, and the final battle that Shannari must fight against the Shadow to save the men she loves.
