

Madhurs Revenge As She Finds True Love

Grant Evans is planning a trip to Union City, location of the university he will enter in the fall. He has two objectives for the visit to find a house large enough to accommodate him and his growing family of mostly-women while they are all in school; and to guarantee that Madhur is safe from the vicious gang who brutalized her a few months earlier. Accompanied by his best friend, Doug, and two of his women, he goes first to Madhurs motel. The group is alarmed to find Madhur is missing and her room has been ransacked. He uses his hypnosis skills to get information from the motel manager and, later, from Madhurs former roommate, hoping they can find her before it is too late. The next day, he is surprised and thrilled to meet the sexy, seductive real estate agent who has been assigned to assist him in his search for a house. After half a day of disappointments, she finally suggests a remote estate, available for a fraction of its worth. What happens between Grant and the agent and the result of the housing search is hot, satisfying, and well worth the read.
